

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
GALVESTON DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	§
	§
VS.	§	CRIMINAL NO. G-14-16
	§
JUSTIN ANDREW BARNETT	§

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

On July 7, 2014, this Court convened the combined Initial Appearance and Arraignment of Justin Andrew Barnett, the named Defendant, in the above-styled and numbered cause. Having considered the oral report of the Pretrial Services Officer and the Defendant's confirmation that he is now serving a state court felony sentence of imprisonment, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Since Barnett is now in state custody and has no legitimate claim to a liberty interest that would justify an immediate or meaningful Detention Hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), it is the ORDER of this Court that good cause exists to postpone the need for a Detention Hearing until such time as Barnett can maintain a legitimate liberty interest. See United States v. King, 818 F.2d 112, 114 (1st Cir. 1987). Accordingly, the Court finds that there is no need to conduct a Detention Hearing at this time.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the Justin Andrew Barnett be, and he is hereby, COMMITTED to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility.

It is further ORDERED that the Justin Andrew Barnett SHALL be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel.

It is further ORDERED that upon Order of a Court of the United States or upon request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility SHALL deliver the Justin Andrew Barnett to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a Court proceeding.

DONE at Galveston, Texas, this _____7th_____ day of July, 2014.

John R. Froeschner
United States Magistrate Judge
